The "Mendeley Desktop Setup" window is open, displaying the "Choose Start Menu Folder" dialog. The dialog has a title bar with the Mendeley logo and the text "Mendeley Desktop Setup". Below the title bar is the Mendeley logo and the heading "Choose Start Menu Folder". The main text reads: "Choose a Start Menu folder for the Mendeley Desktop shortcuts." Below this is a sub-instruction: "Select the Start Menu folder in which you would like to create the program's shortcuts. You can also enter a name to create a new folder." A text input field contains "Mendeley Desktop". A list box below it shows the following folders: 7-Zip, Accessibility, Accessories, Administrative Tools, AmnPardez, Avison FB2280E Scanner, IBM SPSS Statistics, Maintenance, Mendeley Desktop, Microsoft Office Tools, and StartUp. The "Mendeley Desktop" folder is selected. At the bottom of the list box is a checkbox labeled "Do not create shortcuts" which is unchecked. At the bottom of the dialog are three buttons: "< Back", "Install", and "Cancel".

The image shows a Windows 10 desktop environment with a blue background. A central window titled "Mendeley Desktop Setup" is open, displaying an "Installing" progress bar. The progress bar shows "Extract: PDFNetC.dll... 37%" with a green bar indicating the progress. Below the progress bar is a "Show details" button. At the bottom of the window, there are navigation buttons: "< Back", "Next >", and "Cancel". The desktop contains various icons including "This PC", "Control Panel", "dr roohi", "solati university", "book", "1354-3631-...", "Acrobat Reader DC", "core jurnal", "mendely", "Firefox", "mesh terme", "Google Chrome", "Practical exercises ...", "VPN", "Practical exercises ...", and "Article". On the right side, there are icons for "ahkam", "thesis spring 1401", "مقاله خدمتکار", "songs", and "Recycle Bin". The taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, a search bar with the text "Type here to search", and several application icons including File Explorer, Edge, Chrome, and Mendeley. The system tray on the right shows the date and time as "2:25 PM 4/20/2022", the language as "ENG", and the temperature as "68°F".

Completing the Mendeley Desktop Setup Wizard

The screenshot shows a Windows 10 desktop environment. The desktop background is blue. On the left side, there is a taskbar with icons for 'This PC', 'Control Panel', 'solati university', 'Acrobat Reader DC', 'Firefox', 'Google Chrome', 'VPN', and 'Article'. The desktop also has several folders: 'book', 'core juma', 'mesh term', 'Practical exercises', and 'Mendeley Desktop'. On the right side, there are icons for 'ahkam', 'thesis spring 1401', 'مقاله خدمتکار', 'songs', and 'Recycle Bin'. The taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, a search bar with the text 'Type here to search', and several application icons including Word, File Explorer, Edge, Chrome, and Mendeley Desktop. The system tray on the right shows the date and time as '1:55 PM 4/20/2022' and the language as 'ENG'. The temperature is shown as '70°F'. A 'Welcome to Mendeley' dialog box is open in the center of the screen. The dialog box has a title bar that says 'Welcome to Mendeley' and a close button. It contains two main sections: 'Reference Manager' and 'Citation Plugin for Microsoft Word®'. Both sections have a green 'INSTALLED' badge. The 'Reference Manager' section says 'Welcome to Mendeley! To get started add your first document or library (Endnote XML, BibTeX, RIS or other).' and has a blue button that says 'Import documents or library' with a document icon. The 'Citation Plugin for Microsoft Word®' section says 'You will be able to cite your Mendeley references in Microsoft Word® with the Citation Plugin.' and has a screenshot of the Microsoft Word interface with a red circle around the 'Insert Citation' button. Below these sections, there is a 'Good to know' section with the text 'Discover Mendeley tools and tips to manage your references and citation styles.' and a link that says 'Read online help guides'. At the bottom of the dialog box, there is a checkbox that says 'Do not show me this message anymore' and a 'Close' button.

Abstract:

سابقه و هدف: آسیب ناشی از ایسکمیک-ریوفیوز (IR) یکی از علل اساسی نارسایی کبد طی جراحی‌ها می‌باشد. این وضعیت معمولی منقبض کننده عروقی، دو نوع گیرنده ETA و ETB دارد که افزایش تعداد گیرنده ETB با انصاف سمیترهیدها، التهاب و تکثیر بافت کبد را کاهش می‌دهد. در این مطالعه اثر دگر آمیزون بر آسیب گشکوکالکسی و بیان ژن گیرنده ETB تحت کد طی IR گزیر کبدک درون بررسی شد. مواد و روش‌ها: رت‌های نر ویسار به چهار گروه تقسیم نایی تقسیم شدند: به گروه SHAM سالی، به گروه DEX دگر آمیزون (10 mg/kg)، به گروه IR طی ایسکمیک-ریوفیوز کبدک سالی و به گروه DEX+IR دگر آمیزون (20 mg/kg) و درجه قبل ایسکمیک و بلافاصله بعد از ریوفیوز

The screenshot shows the Mendeley Desktop interface with the File Organizer dialog box open. The dialog box has several sections:

- General: Includes a checked box for "Organize my files".
- Copy files to: A text field containing "C:\Users\s_albeyk\Desktop\ppdff" with a "Browse..." button to its right.
- Open folder: A text field with a "Tidy Up" button to its right.
- Unused fields: A section with "Year" and "Title" bubbles.
- Folder path: A section with "Author" and "Journal" bubbles.
- Example: A text field showing "C:\Users\s_albeyk\Desktop\ppdff\Author\Journal\".
- Rename document files: An unchecked checkbox.
- Unused fields: A section with a "Journal" bubble.
- File name: A section with "Author", "Year", and "Title" bubbles.
- Example: A text field showing "Author - Year - Title.pdf".

Annotations in the image include:

- A red circle with the number "1" pointing to the "File Organizer" title bar.
- A red circle with the number "2" pointing to the "Organize my files" checkbox.
- A red circle with the number "3" pointing to the "Browse..." button.
- A yellow box containing the Persian text "مسیری که تمام فایل‌های PDF در آن جا ذخیره شده است" (The path where all PDF files are stored) with a red arrow pointing to the "Copy files to" field.

Buttons at the bottom of the dialog are "OK", "Cancel", and "Apply".

Abstract:

Campus-based open access author funds are being considered by many academic libraries as a way to support authors publishing in open access journals. Article processing fees for open access have been introduced recently by publishers and have not yet been widely accepted by authors. Few studies have surveyed authors on their reasons for publishing open access and their perceptions of open access journals. The present study was designed to gauge the uptake of library support for author funding and author satisfaction with open access publishing. Results indicate that York University authors are increasingly publishing in open access journals and are appreciative of library funding initiatives. The wider implications of open access are discussed along with specific recommendations for publishers.

"An open-access fund is a pool of money set aside by an institution to support publication models that equitable support for the business model for open access journals. This would place the subscription and article processing-fee

Why Full Open Access Matters

Michael W. Carroll***
American University, Washington, D.C., United States of America

Scientific authors who pay to publish their articles in an open-access publication should be congratulated for doing so. They also should be aware that they may not be getting full open access from some publications that charge for publication under the "open access" label. Two features define an open-access publication: (1) the published contents are freely accessible through the Internet, and (2) readers are given copyright permission (see Box 1) to republish or reuse the content as they like so long as the author and publisher receive proper attribution [1]. Recently, some publications have begun offering an open-access option that charges for Internet publication without granting readers full reuse rights, such as Springer's Open Choice or Nature's Scientific Reports. These publishers have adopted a business model through which authors pay for immediate publication on the Internet but the publisher nonetheless keeps commercial reuse rights for itself. This is not full open access (see Box 2).

Getting open access right matters because the new publishing model is designed to increase the pace and impact of scientific communication through the power of the Internet. Immediate, free publication increases the audience for scientific research and overcomes the increasingly high price barrier to access imposed by the traditional, is to shift from a model that uses copyright to control reuse of content to one that uses copyright to encourage republication, preservation, and translation.

Why Support the Open-Access Financial Model?

Pricing of traditional, subscription-financed scientific journals is highly inefficient. The growth in digital technologies and in digital networks should be driving down the price of access to the scholarly journal literature, but instead prices have increased at a rate greatly in excess of inflation (e.g., [4,5]). Moreover, studies from journal publishing in some disciplines show that commercial journal publishers successfully charge significantly more than non-commercial journal publishers, such as scholarly societies, even when the commercial offerings make less valuable contributions to the progress of science and knowledge as measured by citations (e.g., [6]).

The economic roots of the pricing problem are not difficult to discern. Journal publishers provide a platform between authors of journal articles and their readers. In these situations, the go-between can choose a mix of prices to each side of the relationship, usually charging more to the party that is more dependent on the go-between. The traditional demand is relatively inelastic for two reasons. First, libraries are mission-driven to acquire as broad a swath of the literature as they can afford to serve their patrons effectively. Second, subscriptions for academic journals within a given field are not readily interchangeable, unlike, say, subscriptions to news magazines, because each academic journal publishes unique research. Having their subscribers over a barrel, commercial publishers have steadily consolidated to reduce their costs while increasing profits through uncompetitive pricing [7].

The open-access model fundamentally shifts the balance of power in journal publishing, and thereby greatly enhances the efficiency and efficacy of scientific communication. In its most common form, the model shifts the costs of publication entirely to the author-funder side of the relationship so as to broaden access as far as the Internet reaches and to remove the need for any lingering usage barriers. By shifting the costs of publication entirely to the author-funder side, journals must compete head-to-head on quality and price without diminishing impact through price or usage barriers because authors have greater choice over where to publish than libraries have over whether to subscribe. This increased competition will reduce the overall costs

We studied the combined effect of air pollutant concentrations and meteorological factors [e.g., temperature and atmospheric pressure (AP)] on the acute exacerbation of coronary obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) in 277 older patients with COPD (240 men and 37 women; average age, 75.3 ± 9.3

Search Your Documents

Full text search, or filter your results

The screenshot shows the Mendeley Desktop application window. At the top, there is a search bar containing the text "open access". A dropdown menu is open below the search bar, listing filter options: Authors, Titles, Publication Names, Year, and Notes. The main area of the window displays search results for "open access" in "All Documents". The results list includes several entries, each with a star icon, a green dot, and a title. The titles are: "Ten-year cross-disciplinary comparison of the growth of open access and how it increase", "The access/impact problem and the green and gold roads to open access", "When is open access not open access?", "Comparing the impact of open access (OA) vs. non-OA articles in the same journals", "Citation advantage of open access articles", "JASPAR: an open-access database for eukaryotic transcription factor binding profiles", and "JASPAR, the open access database of transcription factor-binding profiles: new content ar".

Abstract:

This perspective explains the mechanics of copyright and scholarly publishing and warns authors who support open-access publishing about a new pseudo open-access publishing model in which authors pay but publishers still retain commercial reuse rights.

Annotate and Highlight

The screenshot displays the Mendeley Desktop application window. The title bar reads "Mendeley Desktop". The menu bar includes "Pan", "Highlight", "Note", "Select", "Copy", "Paste", "Rotate", "Zoom", "Fullscreen", and "Sync". The main content area shows a document titled "Open Access Publishing Authors Want" by Rajiv Nariani and Leila Fernand. A yellow sticky note is overlaid on the text, containing the text: "You 12/03/2014 16:08 This sticky note allows you to annotate your paper. You can also make notes to the right." The right sidebar has tabs for "Details", "Notes", "Contents", and "Enrichments". The "Notes" tab is active, showing a "Notes:" section with a text area and a "Annotations:" section with a text area. The "Annotations" section contains the text: "This paper has no annotations yet. You can add notes and highlights in the PDF viewer." A large grey arrow points from the title "Annotate and Highlight" down to the "Highlight" button in the menu bar. Another large grey arrow points from the top of the sticky note down to the "Note" button in the menu bar. A third large grey arrow points from the bottom of the sticky note up to the "Annotations" section in the sidebar.

Open Access Publishing Authors Want

Rajiv Nariani and Leila Fernand

Campus-based open access author funds are being considered by many academic libraries as a way to support authors publishing in open access journals. Article processing fees for open access have been introduced recently by publishers and have not yet been widely accepted by authors. Few studies have surveyed authors on their reasons for publishing open access and their perceptions of open access journals. The present study was designed to gauge the uptake of library support for author funding and author satisfaction with open access publishing. Results indicate that York University authors are increasingly publishing in open access journals and are appreciative of library funding initiatives. The wider implications of open access are discussed along with specific recommendations for publishers.

"An open-access fund is a pool of money set aside by an institution to support publication models that equitable support for the business model for open access journals. This would place the subscription and article processing fee

Look Up Term Definitions

The screenshot shows the Mendeley Desktop interface. The main window displays a document titled "Open Access Publishing: What Authors Want" by Rajiv Nariani and L. Fernandez. A tooltip is visible over the text "Open access", providing a definition: "Open access (OA) means unrestricted online access to peer-reviewed scholarly research. Open access is primarily intended for scholarly journal articles, but is also provided for a growing number of theses, book chapters, and scholarly monographs. Open access comes in two degrees: gratis OA, which is free online access and libre OA, which is free online access and the right to reuse the content." The details panel on the right shows the article's metadata: Type: Journal Article, Journal: College & Research Libraries, Year: 2012, Volume: 73, Pages: 182-195. The abstract is also visible, starting with "Campus-based open access author funds are being considered by many academic libraries as a way to support authors publishing in open access journals. Article processing fees for open access have been introduced recently by publishers and have not yet been widely accepted by authors. Few studies have surveyed authors on their reasons for publishing open access and their perceptions of open access journals. # Create your research profile

The screenshot shows a Mendeley user profile for Dr. Victor Henning. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Mendeley logo and the name 'MENDELEY'. A welcome message says 'Welcome back Claire van den Broek' with a notification icon showing '9+'. There are links for 'My Account', 'Invite colleagues', and 'Support'. Below the navigation bar are tabs for 'Dashboard', 'My Library', 'Papers', 'Groups', and 'People'. A search bar contains 'jan reichelt'. The profile section has tabs for 'View Profile', 'Updates', 'Following', and 'Followers'. The profile picture shows a man in a striped shirt. The name 'Dr. Victor Henning' is displayed, followed by his title 'Co-Founder/CEO, Mendeley & VP Strategy, Elsevier' and location 'Amsterdam, Netherlands'. His research field is 'Psychology - Cognition' with sub-fields: 'Emotions, Decision Making, Theory of Reasoned Action, Intertemporal Choice, Motion Picture Economics'. The 'Publications' section is expanded to show 6 journal articles. The right sidebar shows 'Following' (492) and 'Followers' (494) counts, a 'Following' button, and lists of public and institution groups he is a member of or following.

Mendeley Year in Review 2013

This was a year of great change at Mendeley, with lots of news, exciting developments and, of course, tons of fun at Mendeley HQ. Here are a few of the many highlights:

 In January, the Mendeley founders Jan, Paul, and Victor were voted "Best Startup Founders" at the Europas, considered the Oscars of the European Tech scene. This was the second win for Mendeley, which scooped up the prize for "Best Social Innovation Which Benefits Society" in 2009.

In February, we listened to your comments and released Mendeley Desktop v1.8, with expanded offerings and bug fixes.

April brought a lot of attention as Mendeley joined Elsevier. We're proud to have honoured our promise that the merger would mean very little change for our users, beyond some positive resources...like the doubling of storage space that immediately followed the announcement.
